INTRODUCTORY NOTE

The College of Law of the University of Wyoming is pleased to present this symposium issue of the Wyoming Law Journal on the general subject of "Legal Problems Relating to Wyoming Youth." So far as we are aware, this is the first law review symposium devoted entirely to youth problems. The issue was made possible through the cooperation and assistance of the Wyoming Youth Council—and, in particular, its Executive Secretary, Brooke Wunnicke, of the Cheyenne Bar. Out of the multitude of legal topics of special concern to Wyoming youth we have selected the following as being of particular importance: the Juvenile Court, problems of adoption relating to abandoned children, the Uniform Enforcement of Support Act, and the in-state support statute enacted by the 1953 Legislature.

The Student Editorial Board of the Law Journal and the faculty of the College of Law gratefully acknowledge the special contributions made to this issue by Mrs. Wunnicke; Miss E. Berniece Brown, Director of the Albany County Welfare Department; Mr. J. M. McIntire, Chairman of the Wyoming Youth Council and member of the Board of Trustees of the University of Wyoming; Hon. Glenn Parker, District Judge of the Second Judicial District; and Gordon Davis, Esq., County and Prosecuting Attorney of Albany County.

JOHN O. RAMES,
Assoc. Prof. of Law and
Adviser for the symposium issue.
