WYOMING STATE BAR SECTION
ANNOUNCEMENT OF
SECOND ANNUAL ROCKY MOUNTAIN
MINERAL LAW INSTITUTE

The Second Annual Institute of the Rocky Mountain Mineral Law Foundation will be held at the University of Colorado, August 2 to August 4, 1956.

The foundation grew out of the first annual Rocky Mountain Mineral Law Institute held at the University last July when more than 600 persons from 23 states attended. Because of the regional sponsorship of seven bar associations, eight law schools and the oil and gas and mining industry, attendance is expected to exceed 600 this year.

Eighteen experts from throughout the nation in the field of mining, oil and gas and taxation law will speak at the Institute. Subjects they will discuss include mining leases, mineral reservations of railroads and local government bodies, current decisions and problems in the regulation of the independent natural gas producers, legal problems related to the development and utilization of atomic power and unitization in oil and gas development.

Arthur Thad Smith of the Continental Oil Co., Denver, is president of the Rocky Mountain Mineral Law Foundation. H. M. Gullickson, Denver, area counsel for the Shell Oil Co., will serve as general chairman of the Institute.

Edward C. King, dean of the School of Law at the University of Colorado, will serve as director of the Institute. Inquiries about the Institute should be addressed to the Rocky Mountain Mineral Law Foundation, University of Colorado, Boulder, Colorado.
