REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE
FOR CONTINUING LEGAL EDUCATION AND
ADMISSION TO THE BAR

This Committee has been mainly concerned the past year with a proposed plan to coordinate with other states with a purpose of hiring an administrator for the states of South Dakota, Nebraska, Colorado, and Wyoming.

After the committee report at the 1962 Bar meeting, the Commissioners of the Bar gave a commitment of $1500.00 toward Wyoming's share of the cost of hiring an administrator and setting up an office for the four-state area.

Your chairman thereafter informed Mr. John Mulder, the National Director on Continuing Legal Education, that Wyoming was ready to proceed with the plan, at least in a financial way. Copies of the letter to the Director were traced to the Chairmen of the other States' Continuing Legal Education Committees. Mr. Mason of Nebraska replied in December of 1961 that this was encouraging. Mr. Mulder replied it was good to know we are taking favorable action, but doubted Colorado was interested.

In the meantime, the Wyoming Law School did conduct an institute on the Model Corporation Act and kindred subjects.

Needless to say, it is recommended the plan for a four-state administrator be abandoned and new ideas be extracted from the committee to plan for the coming year.
